

the 1990s, the number of people in the UK who are aged 65 and over has increased from 10.5 million to 12.5 million, and the number of people aged 75 and over has increased from 4.5 million to 6.5 million (Office of National Statistics 2000).

There is a growing awareness of the need to address the needs of older people in the community. The Department of Health (1999) has published a strategy for older people, which sets out a vision for the future of older people's services. The strategy is based on the principle of 'active ageing', which is the process of maintaining and enhancing the health, participation and security of older people. The strategy also sets out a number of key objectives, including: to improve the health and well-being of older people; to increase the participation of older people in society; and to ensure that older people are secure and safe.

Football practice begins in August

Long hours of hard back-breaking practice is what it takes to win in any sport. Especially football.

The Warriors started practicing and preparing for the season long before school began. The result was one of the most exciting seasons in recent Calumet history. Players must get in top physical condition, work plays and methods until they are perfect. After long hours of practicing, building and toning muscles, the season begins.

Blocking methods must be practiced to make perfect for the coming season.

"Poke" Walton takes a handoff from quarterback "Woggy" Keck.

Cal runners at regionals

Getting to the regionals in Laporte wasn't easy for Calumet's cross country but they managed to get a second at the sectionals, qualifying them for the spot. One reason they got to Laporte was the speed of the most valuable Calumet runner, Ed Muro, who wants to break some record while running for Calumet. Another standout runner was the runnerup for M.V.P., Roger Sanchez.

STANDING, Mgr. Dinnis Jongsma, Roger Sanchez, Bobby Wheatley, Glenn Brown, Bill Lute, Ed Muro, Coach Traicoff. KNEELING, Bill Mager, Dennis Ross, Robert Guice and Fred Lambert.

Dennis Ross expresses relief as he crosses the finish line at Cressmore.

Homecoming week arouses spirit

Warrior Day, Monday September 27, started off Homecoming week for 1971. Bike day was next. Greaser Day followed with students trying to capture the look of the Fifties. In the annual Powder Puff game Thursday, the Junior team, the Payne Killers, upset the senior Screaming Squaws. That night Calumet fans saw the longest parade and biggest bonfire in Calumet's history. Homecoming peak was Friday night when Calumet defeated East Gary and Kathy Johnson was crowned queen.

Greasers Ron Griffin, Tom Bush, Jo Ann Woolwine, Mark Durcho and Doug Spencer make the scene.

Contestants await the starting of the individual bike race.

"Hike!" screams Kathy Gulley, punter for the Junior team.

Frank Oaks speeds down the cafeteria on his new bicycle.

A member of the Homecoming band, the Deltatons, gets down.

In recent years homecoming has meant an abundance of spirit, but a lack of talent. 1971-1972, however was different.

The East Gary Eagles stormed onto Calumet's field with a victory in mind. But the Warriors had another idea.

After falling behind, Calumet scored a quick touchdown to go ahead, a lead which was never relinquished.

The outcome was a 38-14 C.H.S. victory in the middle of a mysterious, but exciting race in the Lake Suburban Conference, which saw Calumet finish with a record of two wins and five losses.

After the game, senior members were named Mr. Football.

Rick Funston and Mark Watson team up to pull down an East Gary player. The black hand is unidentified.

Charles Sheets concentrates on turning over his opponent for two points.

Wrestling:

The 1971-72 Wrestling season proved to be a profitable one for the Calumet grapplers, as they compiled a record of 9-1, placing second in both conference and sectionals.

One of the major factors contributing to the success of the team was the experienced coaching of Rolland Beckham, who was aided by Doug Starewicz.

However, the greatest coach will have a losing season without talented personnel. Calumet standouts were Ron Griffin, Charles Sheets, Dale Reisetter, Mark Davis, Tom Joseph, Bob Rush and Keith Owens. All of these will graduate this year.

Cross country men display endurance

Endurance is the key word for distance runners. This year's cross country squad, although not as impressive as previous Calumet teams, showed their endurance in every meet and progressed steadily throughout the year.

They finished sixth in the Kale Suburban Conference the sectionals, thus qualifying for regionals.

Coach Chris Traicoff talks to some of the team members before the cross country meet. Mental build up is equally as important as physical endurance. Knowing this, Bill Lute, Bill Mager, Dennis Ross and the other runners listen intently to what the coach has to say.

Warriors finish a successful season

Coach Traicoff's Warriors started the season against the state champion East Chicago Washington Senators, and after the first four games, wished they would have stopped there. But they didn't and went into the holiday tourney with a dismal 1-4 record hoping for a turn-around.

The first for for the Warriors in the tourney was Griffith's Panthers, whom the Warriors beat handily to get a chance for the championship against Merrillville. The sensation of being number one came after an overtime one-point victory over the Pirates.

The Warriors finished the season with an 8-12 record.

January 21 triumphantly arrived for mid-term seniors. After 3 1/2 years, these students left Calumet's doors after their last school day.

Russell Reames, better known as "Rollo", caused quite a bit of talk in late January. He had his head shaved bald. Then his hairless scalp was later seen bandaged in white gauze --had another senior, Mark Durcho, struck Rollo with a heavy wrench during a disagreement at the service station where Mark worked.

Calumet takes second in sectionals

The 1972 wrestling sectionals were held in the Calumet Fieldhouse for the second year in a row. Calumet entered five wrestlers in the finals but had only one sectional champ, senior Tom Joseph. Joseph was 9-1 in dual matches for the season. Owens,

Griffin, Sheets and Joseph went on to compete in regionals along with Dale Reisetter, who placed as runner-up to state champ Dave Devich. Calumet took second in sectionals under Highland for the second consecutive year.

The grapplers had a dual meet record of 7-1.

Football campaign ends

The month of November brought the end of the 1971 football season of Calumet, which carried with it a few surprises and a few disappointments. The beginning of the campaign brought great optimism from both the players and the faculty, but the breaks did not lean toward the Warriors. The result was an interesting and hopeful season with the outlook toward the future.

After the football season ended, basketball soon took over at Calumet.

As is customary, the junior varsity squad opened what proved to be a highly successful season. The success of the JV can only be attributed to talent, with the young Warriors finishing with a promising record of 12-8. Like the varsity squad, the JV grabbed the holiday tourney in style, and went on to finish the season against some very tough squads, including the Indianapolis Crispus Attucks at the close of the season.

Student Council helps L.C.A.R.C.

This year the Student Council sponsored their benefit week for the Lake County Association for Retarded Children. With North Central coming to evaluate Calumet, the council had to make sure each club had a constitution. They also had to revise their own. Other activities included surrounding school exchange students, talent show, homecoming and Student Councils elections.

Incorporation or annexation?

The people who have made incorporation hopes high, sit and listen intently to just one of the trials of incorporation versus annexation.

Several C.H.S. students participated in the walk for incorporation. A total of 10 miles was covered on the March 18 walk.

In 1971 LINC (Lake Ridge Incorporation Committee) started a movement to incorporate the unincorporated area of Calumet Township. This area includes Black Oak, Small Farms and a large area south of Ridge Road. Tempers flared when Gary announced its plan to annex the Black Oak-Small Farms area. On February 15, 1972, Gary voted to annex this area. Residents made and signed petitions to stop the annexation and proceed with incorporation plans. The deadline for the people to incorporate the area was July 1. At the time this book went to press, the question was still out in the open.

Burr and Ridge Road was the first turn of the trip.

Henry Ensweiler was chosen as incorporation committee chairman. He served as chief witness for the committee.

Over 500 people participated in the walk. They were led by Modrak Ambulance and Black Oak Volunteer Fire Department.

Satire is presented

Calumet Players presented "Snowy White and the Dwarfs" before the entire student body. The play was a satire on the well known fairy tale. Nancy Lowell starred as Snowy White, while other leading characters were Dean Scott as Prince Humperfink, Marilyn Kuter as the Awon Lady, Janet Morgenroth as the stepmother, and Gina Davis as the Rattler. The rest of the cast consisted of Theresa Bundren, Herta Winters, Belinda Sowers, Tom McGee, and Terri Krejci.

Track begins indoors

The end of winter and a glimpse of spring brings a new season of sports at Calumet, starting with the indoor track campaign. The indoor season consists of seven meets, which were all held in the Calumet Fieldhouse, and the conference meet at Lake Central.

The Warriors placed well in all of the meets, and showed steady progress throughout the season. Among the stand-outs for Calumet were Steve Kellemen and Ed Muro. Kellemen set a record for the 100 and was one of the leaders of the squad.

Happenings

During the month of March a variety of activities took place at Calumet. Henry Rucker, from the Psychic Institute in Chicago, gave a talk to the student body on the psychic phenomena. C-teens sponsored a St. Patrick's Day Dance. The club also collected Care Free Gum wrappers in order to win a rock concert. Boys and Girls Staters were chosen and the Homemaking Club held its annual initiation.

Mrs. Nan Pelozo, C-teens sponsor, pins a corsage on Peggy Waters at the Saint Patrick's Day Dance, which the club sponsored.

Helen Hutchins, psychic from Positive Guidance in Chicago, addressed students about the psychic phenomenon and answered questions. He also did an experiment showing everyone a little psychic.

Joyce Leathers, from Kalamazoo, Karen Terrell and Denise Smith put down to the final psychic medium contest.

Rene Camarero adds the "unlucky" to his head as he counts the entries for the "Cape from Gown" Contest.

Baseball season gets underway

If track comes, can baseball be far behind? No, it can't, and it wasn't. Even though rain and cold weather weren't on the side of the Warriors, they decided to try and have a baseball season anyway. This was much to the liking of the squad as they traveled to Benton Central High School to grab a victory and begin the baseball season with a promising start.

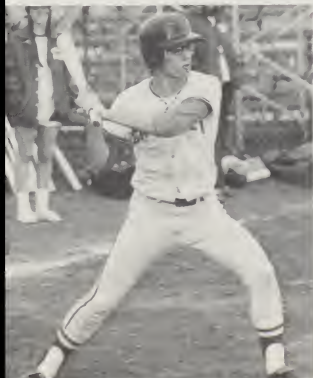

After a win there, the Warriors came back to Gary to play the East Gary Eagles and grab their second victory, giving visions of a Lake Suburban Conference championship.

Band, choral members go downstate

Eight Calumet students went downstate for the NISBOVA contest (Northern Indiana School Band Orchestra Vocal Association) in January. In order to qualify for this contest in Indianapolis, these students had to take first place in the first division of the regional NISBOVA contest. Anna Lesicko, Marilyn Kuter and Vicki Bates played a clarinet trio, and Linnea Lee soloed on the saxophone. Participating from our choir were Chris Diwyk, Leona Bonds, Linda Nelson and Tricia Hales. Linnea Lee, Chris Diwyk and Tricia Hales received first place in the state contest. Included in various other band activities was the annual spring concert on April 28. Linnea Lee and Kenny Hetzler played solos. On March 23 the band held a banquet for the senior members. They were treated to dinner at Berghoff's and the stage play, "1776" at the Schubert Theatre. Among the activities of the a capella choir was the regional concert held at Hobart on March 4.

French Club sees Canada

Spring vacation was spent in Canada by six members of the French Club. A five night, four day trip was taken through Toronto, Montreal and Quebec.

Seniors Marilyn Kuter, Anna Lesico, Linda Evans and Shirly Wilkerson with Sophmores Susan Davies and Sandra Fraley enjoyed their mini touch of French living. Exciting parts of the trip were in Montreal riding on their underground subway or metro system all through the city and staying at the Chateau Frontenac in Quebec city for two nights.

Linda Evans, Shirly Wilkerson, and Anna Lesico prepare to rest after a long trip.

Pan-Am eats out in style

The Spanish Club and classes visited the Field Museum and viewed the exhibits before they dined at the Su Casa restaurant in Chicago. The menu was entirely Spanish, consisting of tacos, enchiladas, fried beans and Spanish pastries.

Mike Stamper struggles to get his taco eaten while Rick Guererro easily stashes it away.

David Banning and Jerry Tauber enjoy their food and company.

Art Castaneda and Theresa Bundren plan for the senior trip.

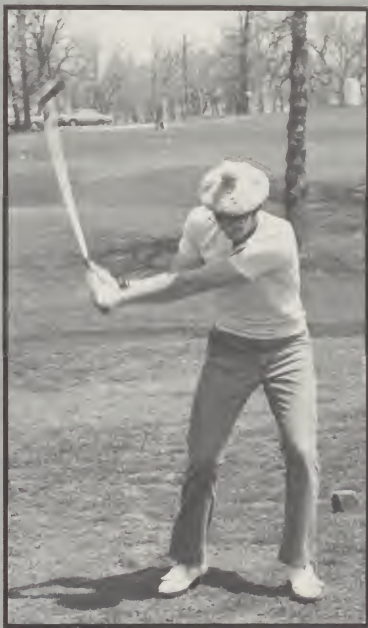

Jim Chakos rests in his room after a hard day of lying in the sun.

Ray Austin tries to place the ball between two trees which seem to be in the way.

CHS golf team has a better year

The Calumet golf team improved greatly over the 1971 season but still showed room for improvement after displaying some hopeful talent at the start of the season.

Leading the Warriors was senior Jay Austin, who has contributed to the Calumet golf scene for four years. Also contributing to the improvement of the club were Rob Ewing, Gene Estill, Doug Apostol and freshman Peter Chiarmonte, all four of whom will return next year when the Warriors should be a threat in the area.

"To Soon A Memory" big success; Sabrina, Bob, crowned queen, king

"To Soon A Memory" was the theme of the prom. It was held on May 12, 1972 at the Salvatorian Fathers Hall in Merrillville. Approximately 108 couples enjoyed the music of the Moonglows. Crowned as the '72 queen was Sabrina Cermak. Paula Reese, Debbie Reynolds, and Mila Vuckovich served in Sabrina's court. Bob Bush was named as prom king. Doug Splitgerber, Ray Seifert, and Paul Torchia served in Bob's court. "To Soon A Memory" certainly became to soon a memory.

The 1972 queen, king, and court are Sabrina Cermak, queen; Bob Bush, king; Debbie Reynolds; Paul Torchia; Doug Splitgerber; Paula Reese; Ray Seifert, and Mila Vuckovich attendants.

Students and administrators enjoy dancing to the music of Ray Stenson and the Moonglows.

Sabrina Cermak cries unbelievably as she is crowned Prom Queen by Mrs. Nan Pelozo.

As they dance, Mike Lovings and Patty Sheats seem content and in a world of their own.

"Mother Goose" entertains at Sherwood Club for post-prom

Post Prom began at midnight at the Sherwood Club. Dinner was served buffet style with hungry couples going back for seconds and thirds. When Mother Goose began their music, which lasted until the wee hours of the morning, couples made themselves comfortable by removing bow ties, jackets, and shoes.

Couples line up for buffet dinner.

Tim McGee and Mary Beth Lowrey work off their dinner calories.

Dressed as a "southern belle," Lisa Shingle models one of the many differently styled prom dresses.

Keith Owens "gets down" to the sound of Mother Goose.

Sitting in a beauty shop for three hours having your hair done certainly has its rewards if it turns out as well as it did for Jesse Sanchez.

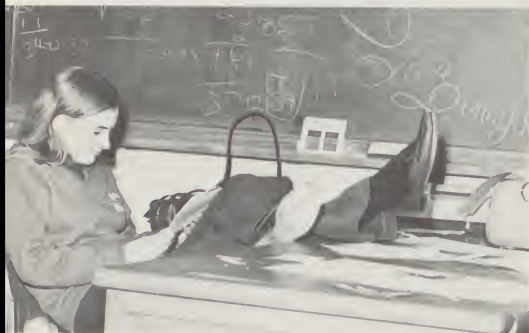

Danny Cain and Dave Hoder ask for seconds as Judy Church can't seem to choose between baked ham and ravioli.

Several changes improve Warrior

The C. H. S. newspaper underwent several major changes in 1971-1972. First and foremost, the staff was able to rid itself of many difficulties encountered in previous years with the school's graphic arts department. This was accomplished by having the paper printed at Calumet Press. Page size doubled and Mr. Friend taught staff photographers how to screen their own halftones (exact size pictures). This was also the first year the Warrior came out on a regular bi-weekly basis. One of the features was a centerfold of the Easter Bunny.

Terri Lynch types copy for the next edition of the Warrior.

Track team enjoys accomplishments

Steve Kellemen takes the lead in the sectionals at Hammond Gavit. Steve qualified for the regionals, and holds the school record for the 100 yard dash.

Frank Davis takes his turn in the long jump to try and qualify for the regionals.

Although there were a few disappointments, the Calumet track team placed well in every meet and broke a few records, for a highly successful season. After an encouraging indoor season, the Warriors started their outdoor campaign.

Not only did the team have a successful season, but many individuals enjoyed their finest year in Calumet track. Steve Kellemen broke the high school record for the 100 yard dash with a quick run of 9.8 seconds. Ed Muro broke the two mile record with a run of 9 minutes 50 seconds.

Ed Muro paces himself while competing in the two-mile run.

Dennis Ross thinks positive as he makes the turn.

Who is that masked man! It's the Lone Runner, Bill Lute.

CHS baseball team surges upward

A highly successful season was enjoyed by every member of the team, as the Warriors rolled over many of their opponents and surprised many with their effectiveness.

There were many standouts on the experienced ball club including steady hitters as Doug Splitgerber and Mark Watson, combined with the power of Mike Lovings. Dave Keck provided both hitting and pitching punch. Don Meacham also did a fine job on the mound, and John Barjfeldt showed promise.

Coaches Trcka and Shmagranoff study the game along with other interested parties.

Although not active in the game, a batgirl has an important role in the club. Sabrina Cermak replaces a bat after someone has batted.

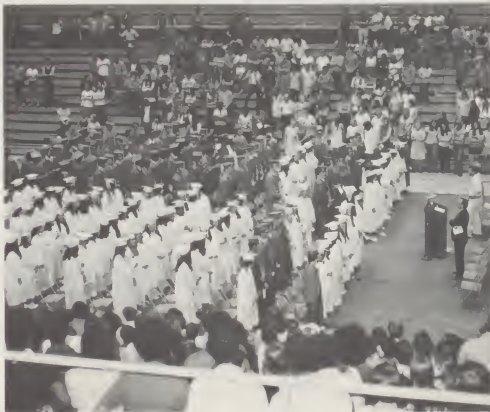

Mike Lovings swings at a low pitch, but recovers quickly to try again.

On Awards Day, an estimated 50 trophies and ten plaques were given to seniors. Over 100 certificates were given, honoring achievements. Approximately 25% of the class of '72 will be attending college in the fall. After ten years as senior counselor, Miss Shonkwiller has seen monetary scholarships grow from $300 in 1963 to $90,000 in 1972.

Seniors gather together to witness the honoring of awards to fellow seniors.

Senior Awards Day, May 18, honoring Class of '72, arrives after four hard years

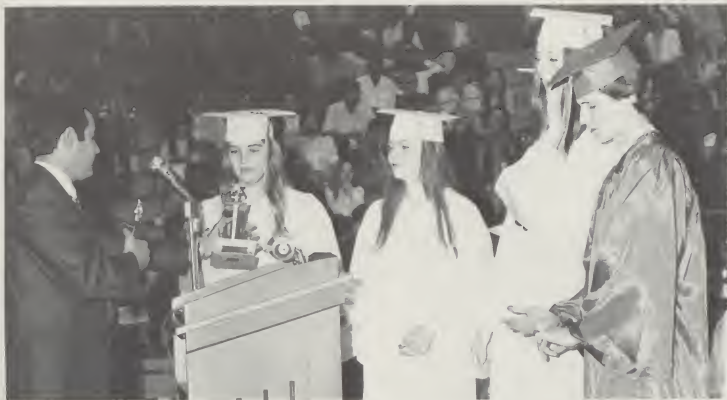

Senior Awards Day was held on May 18, 1972, in the fieldhouse. The graduating class was seen for the first time by fellow students in their caps and gowns. After three years of sitting through other senior awards days this day was the one they would remember.

Mark Mellinger receives the athletic scholarship trophy from Mr. Chris Traicoff.

Collette Brom smiles confidently as she receives a scholarship for college in the fall at DePauw University from senior counselor Miss Ada Shonkwiler.

Dennis Ross receives recognition as the "Bausch and Lomb" winner from chemistry teacher Mr. Harry T. Richard.

Glen Brown accepts the most valuable player trophy after also receiving the "most rebounds" trophy from Coach Carl Traicoff and junior varsity assistant Mr. Bruce Novak.

Marilyn Kuter admires the clock trophy which Mr. John Tsangaris awards her for the Tsangaris Citizenship Award, bringing an end to the 1972 Senior Awards Day.

Underclassmen receive recognition

The 1972 Underclass Awards Day was held on Thursday, May 25, sponsored by the Sophomore Class. Dave Banning, Class of '74 president, was the Master of Ceremonies for this annual day. Awards Day was very successful. Everything was done in an orderly fashion. This year, however, a new award was given. Mr. Borlick gave Mr. Julius a remembrance for the fine service he's given to Calumet High.

Dave Banning emcees the program.

Mr. Willsey hands out track awards.

... and leaves as alumni

Leaving C.H.S. for the last time as a group the '72 alumni soon realized that they were to never see some of their classmates again. This was the last time the class would ever be seen together. The only thing a graduate could say to a friend was "Good luck," for other words were choked.

A) Lorraine DeSantiago shakes hands with Mr. Julius in preparation of receiving her diploma.

B) Mr. Julius speaks to seniors about current events.

C) Vera Zeljkovich is the last senior to get her diploma.

D) Finding it difficult to get his diploma on crutches Donald Keller can't believe he is really graduating.

E) Paul Brock shakes hands with Dr. Carl Bergstrom on receiving his diploma.

F) Denise Allbritten and Marsha Alther proudly turn their tassel from the left side of their caps to the right signifying they have become alumnae '72.

G) Laura Bank and Patsy Banks look down on their diplomas as they remember their entering C.H.S.

H) Janet Morgenroth happily awaits the moment she will get her diploma.

I) Richard Mares and Gina Davis lead the Class of '72 out of the gym where they will be seen together for the last time.

J) Dr. Carl Bergstrom addresses the seniors about their futures.

K) Dr. Bergstrom and Mr. Julius applaud the seniors for the last time.

L) Mr. Paul Borlick gives one last farewell.

Seniors vote in the primaries

Many Calumet High School seniors voted in the primary election on May 2, 1972. The Constitutional Amendment which became effective in June 1971 enabled them to vote if they reach the age of 18 before the general election in November.

Because 1972 was an election year, more emphasis was put on elections and how they are run.

Brian Hennings and Pete Kennedy register to vote so they can voice their opinion in the upcoming elections.

Outstanding Teenagers are chosen

In Memory

JUAN GARCIA, 1953-1971

Juan Garcia, C.H.S. senior, was murdered during a robbery at the service station where he worked, when he tried to flee gun-wielding assailants. School had hardly begun when the incident occurred.

Juan had been active in the four major sports at Calumet. After learning of his death, officials ordered that the flag be flown at half-mast during the Munster game.

The Acappella, of which Juan had been a member, dedicated its spring concert to his memory.

The class of '73 started their year early by sponsoring a car wash in mid-August. This was the start of a long, hard drive to raise money for the '72 Prom. Proving to be the most successful project was the '71 homecoming dance. On February 7, 1972 Jim Paterson, hypnotist, came to perform in front of the entire student body.

The prom, with the theme "Too Soon A Memory", certainly did become just that.

This year's sophomore class started off with 562 students enrolled. They learned to accept the responsibilities of working together. Most took advantage of the opportunities that awaited them at C.H.S. The class of '74 was lead by President Dave Banning. Assemblies increased class spirit and projects were put into action to add to their prom funds. Among these projects was the selling of pens. A donkey basketball game, planned for March 4, was canceled due to Regionals.

Students enjoy after-school life

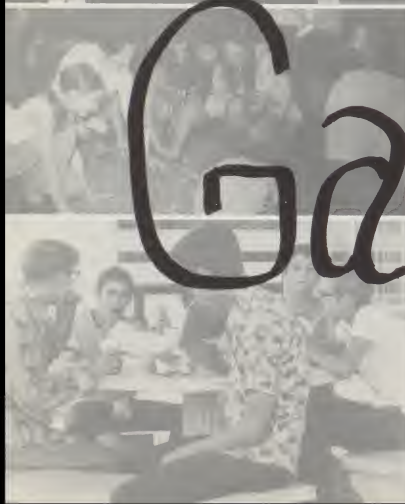

Each day after school there was always some activity going on. Some were sports practices, class planning committee meetings, club meetings, publications fighting to meet a deadline, teachers meetings, intramurals, and last but not least, those people who were just bumming around. It seems that most everyone forgets about these people who pushed our school spirit and made C. H. S. a better place to be part of.

Remember when?

Remember when the year started and some of the things the students went through? In a few years little things like a new flag, a dance, or a trip might not be remembered. The things a student may remember might be the walk in for senior awards day, a Christmas concert, a victory, a visit to McDonald's after a game or for lunch, an assembly, and, probably the most remembered thing, the first sectional win and the first trip to the regionals. But all in all, a student that was most important to him or seemed like the best thing to write about or take pictures of so he wouldn't forget.

1972 Chieftain makes its debut

The 1971-1972 Chieftain staff worked hard to meet all the deadlines even if it meant staying after school until midnight and coming back on Good Friday.

This year the staff voted on a smaller book, page dimension wise, with the addition of twelve more pages than the previous book.

The final deadline was June 5. After this date, all there was left to do was to wait.

A special thanks to Mr. Robert Friend, who resigned after three years at Calumet.

From the desk of the editors . . .

I'd like to thank all those friends at Calumet who have helped us make this yearbook possible. Special thanks to Denise Allbritten, my co-editor; Donita Meulemans, our photographer; Mr. Friend; and all the other kids on the staff. As you have probably noticed, your book's size is smaller. It is an 8 1/2 x 11 inch book. It also has the most pages of any yearbook so far in Calumet history. The color pictures outnumber those from previous years. Also the cover is red, the school color, with no one's picture on it. We've tried to sequence the book as the "Story of the Year" progresses. It begins in August and ends in June. This is the last yearbook for me and I think it is the best ever. I hope YOU like it!!

Marilyn Kuter

It's over. We are all finished with the yearbook. It didn't seem like we'd make it, but we did. The cooperation of everyone involved was unbelievably good. We had a few rough times, but everything turned out OK. I would very much like to give thanks to the following people: The teachers--we bugged them to death; the janitors--I don't know how they ever cleaned up the messes; the administration that couldn't keep us out of the halls; the students--we couldn't have done it without them; and Mr. Friend, He had to have patience. A special thanks to Marilyn Kuter. Without her this book would have probably not have come out like it is. I hope you have enjoyed this book. We've done our best to put it together for you.

Denise Allbritten

- 1995). The authors also found that the frequency of use of the Internet was positively related to the frequency of use of the telephone, and that the frequency of use of the Internet was negatively related to the frequency of use of the television. The authors concluded that the Internet was a new medium for communication, and that it was likely to become a major medium for communication in the future.
